

This coloring book belongs to: _____

Unity in Diversity

Two overlapping leaves, one slightly behind the other, with detailed vein patterns.

A coloring book companion to

The Nightingale's Song

by
Andrea Torrey Balsara

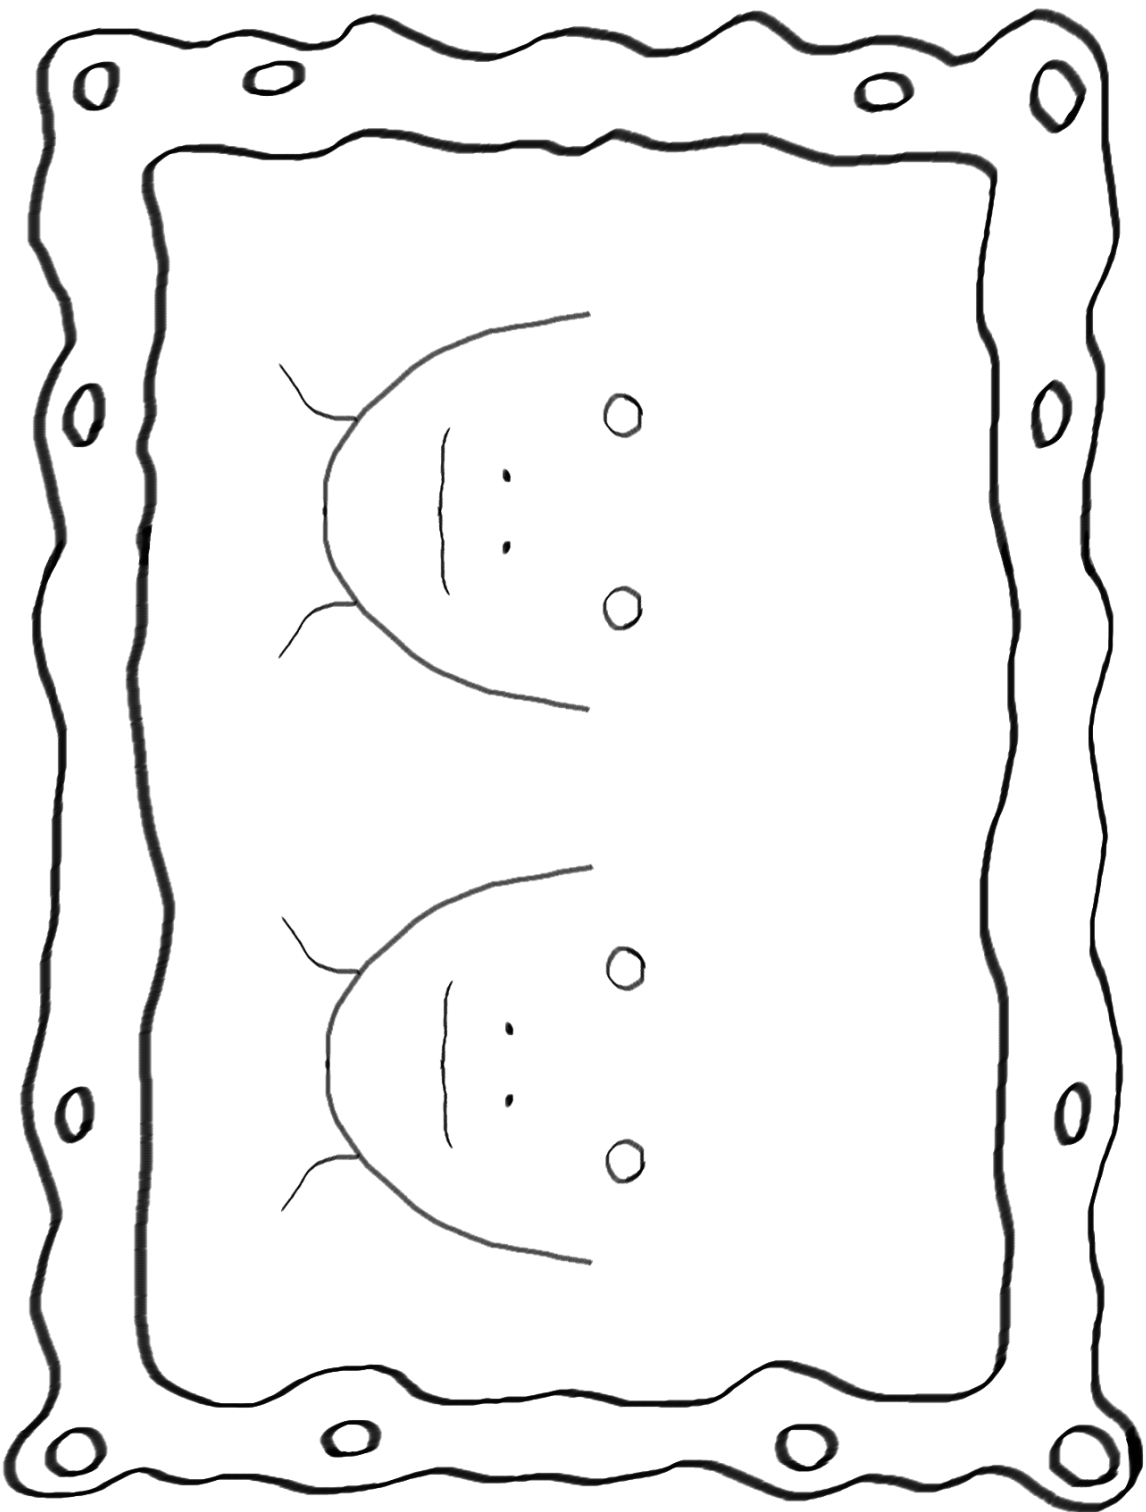

My name is _____

I am good, just as I am!

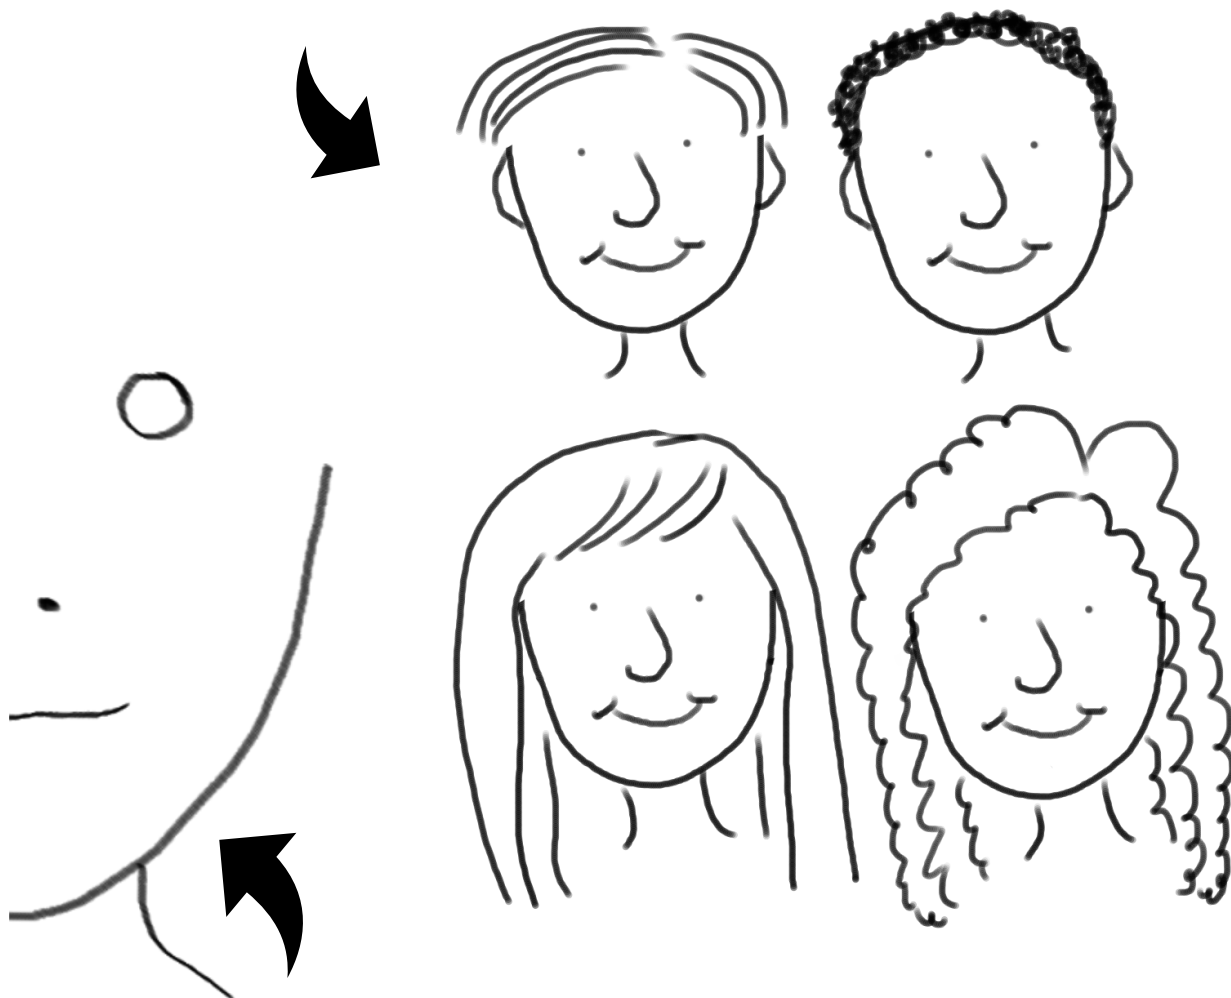

This is me with my friend _____

We are both good, just as we are!

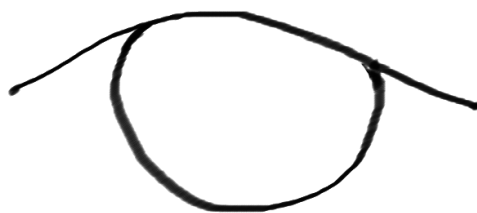

My hair is:

(Circle the one that's MOST like your hair, and then color it! If none are like you, draw your hair on the back of this page!)

My skin is:

(Color the cheek, choosing a color most like yours!)

My eyes are:

(Color the eye, choosing a color most like yours!)

My name is _____ I am good, just as I am!

UNITY in DIVERSITY

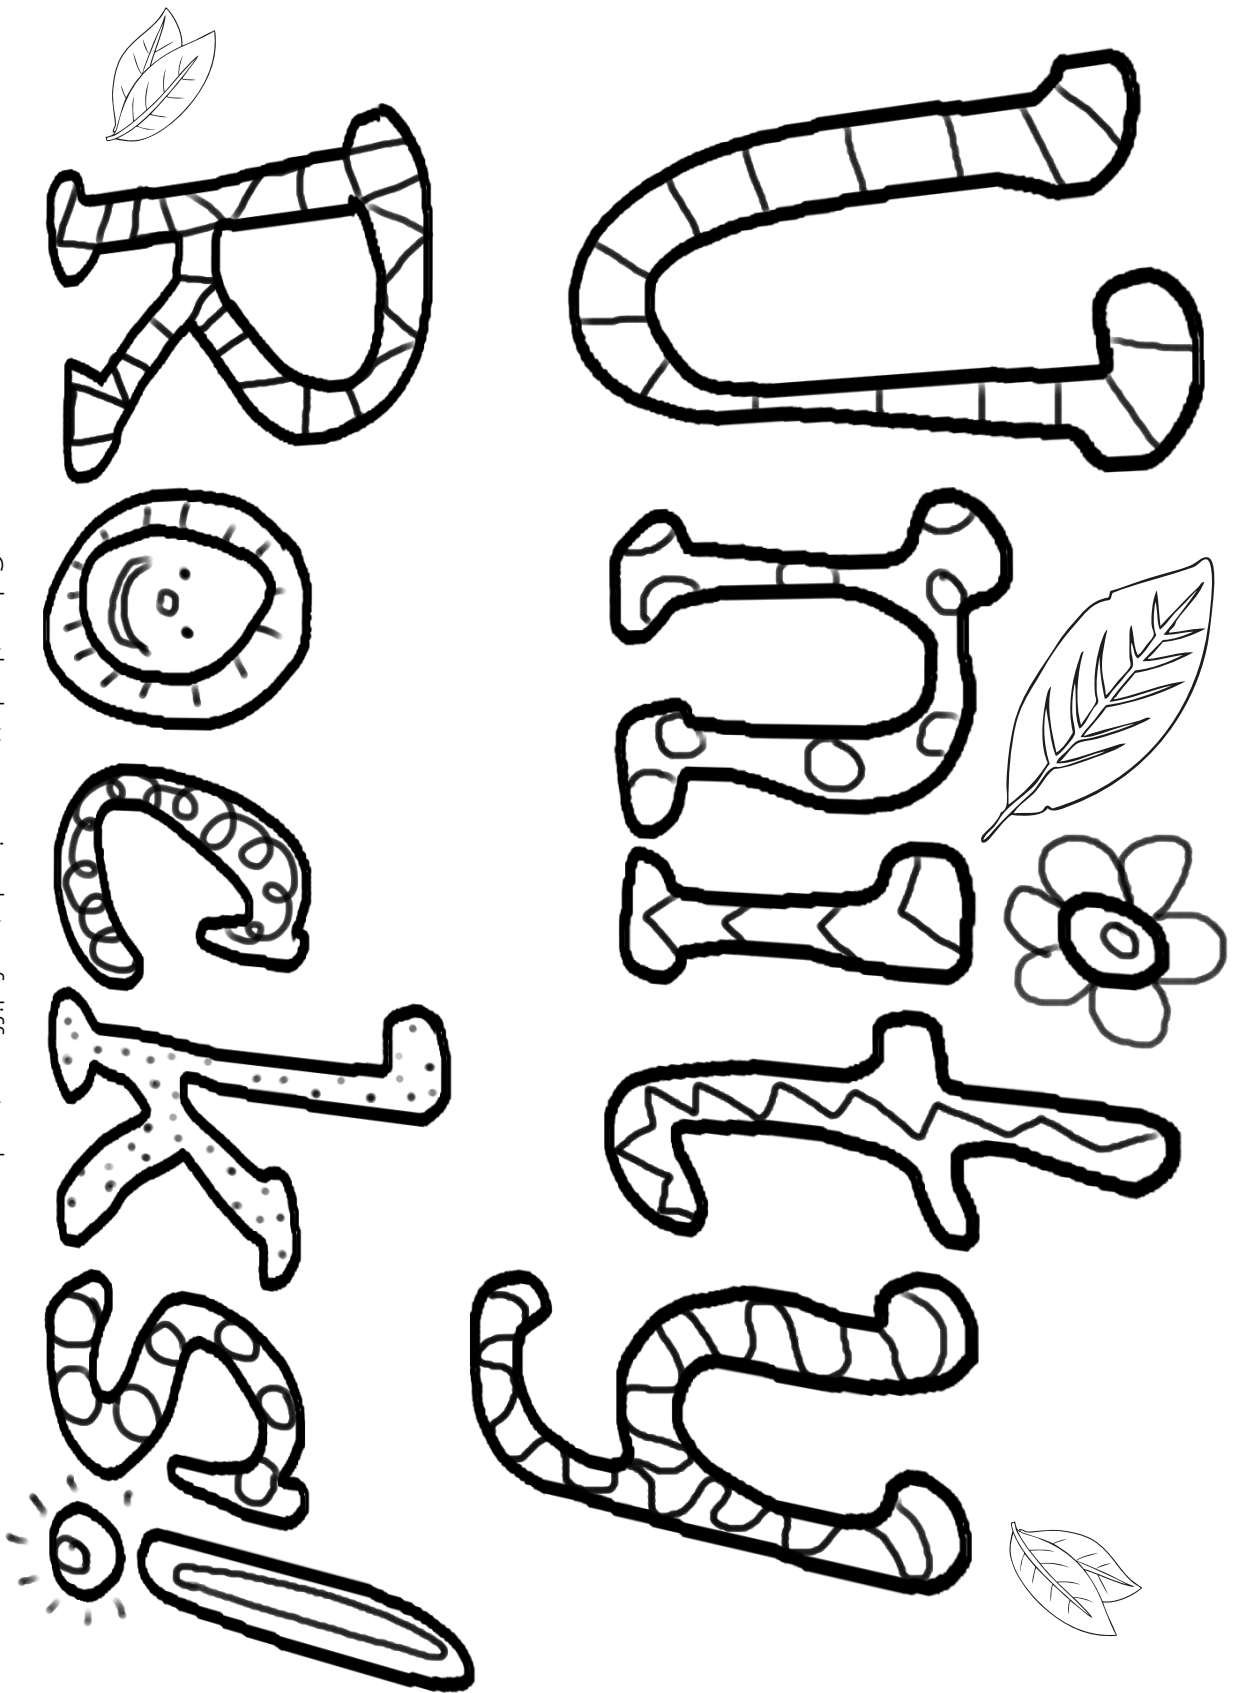

WE DON'T HAVE TO BE THE SAME TO BE AWESOME!

People are like lots of flowers in one garden.

We come in all colors, shapes, and sizes but we are ONE people.

Color the letters, using lots of different colors.

You can color in the background too! Add flowers, leaves, and stars!